Who Stole The Cookies?

Mystery Board Game

A 2-6 player strategy game. Who stole the cookies,? and where did they hide them? Play to find out and solve the mystery.

*Who.....?

*What.....?

*Where.....?

You will need (included with this printable)

- 1 x Game Board
- 6 Who? cards, 6 What? cards, 9 Where? cards
- 2 Dice
- 6 circular color counters
- 6 clue sheets (plus a pencil per player, not included)

How To Play:

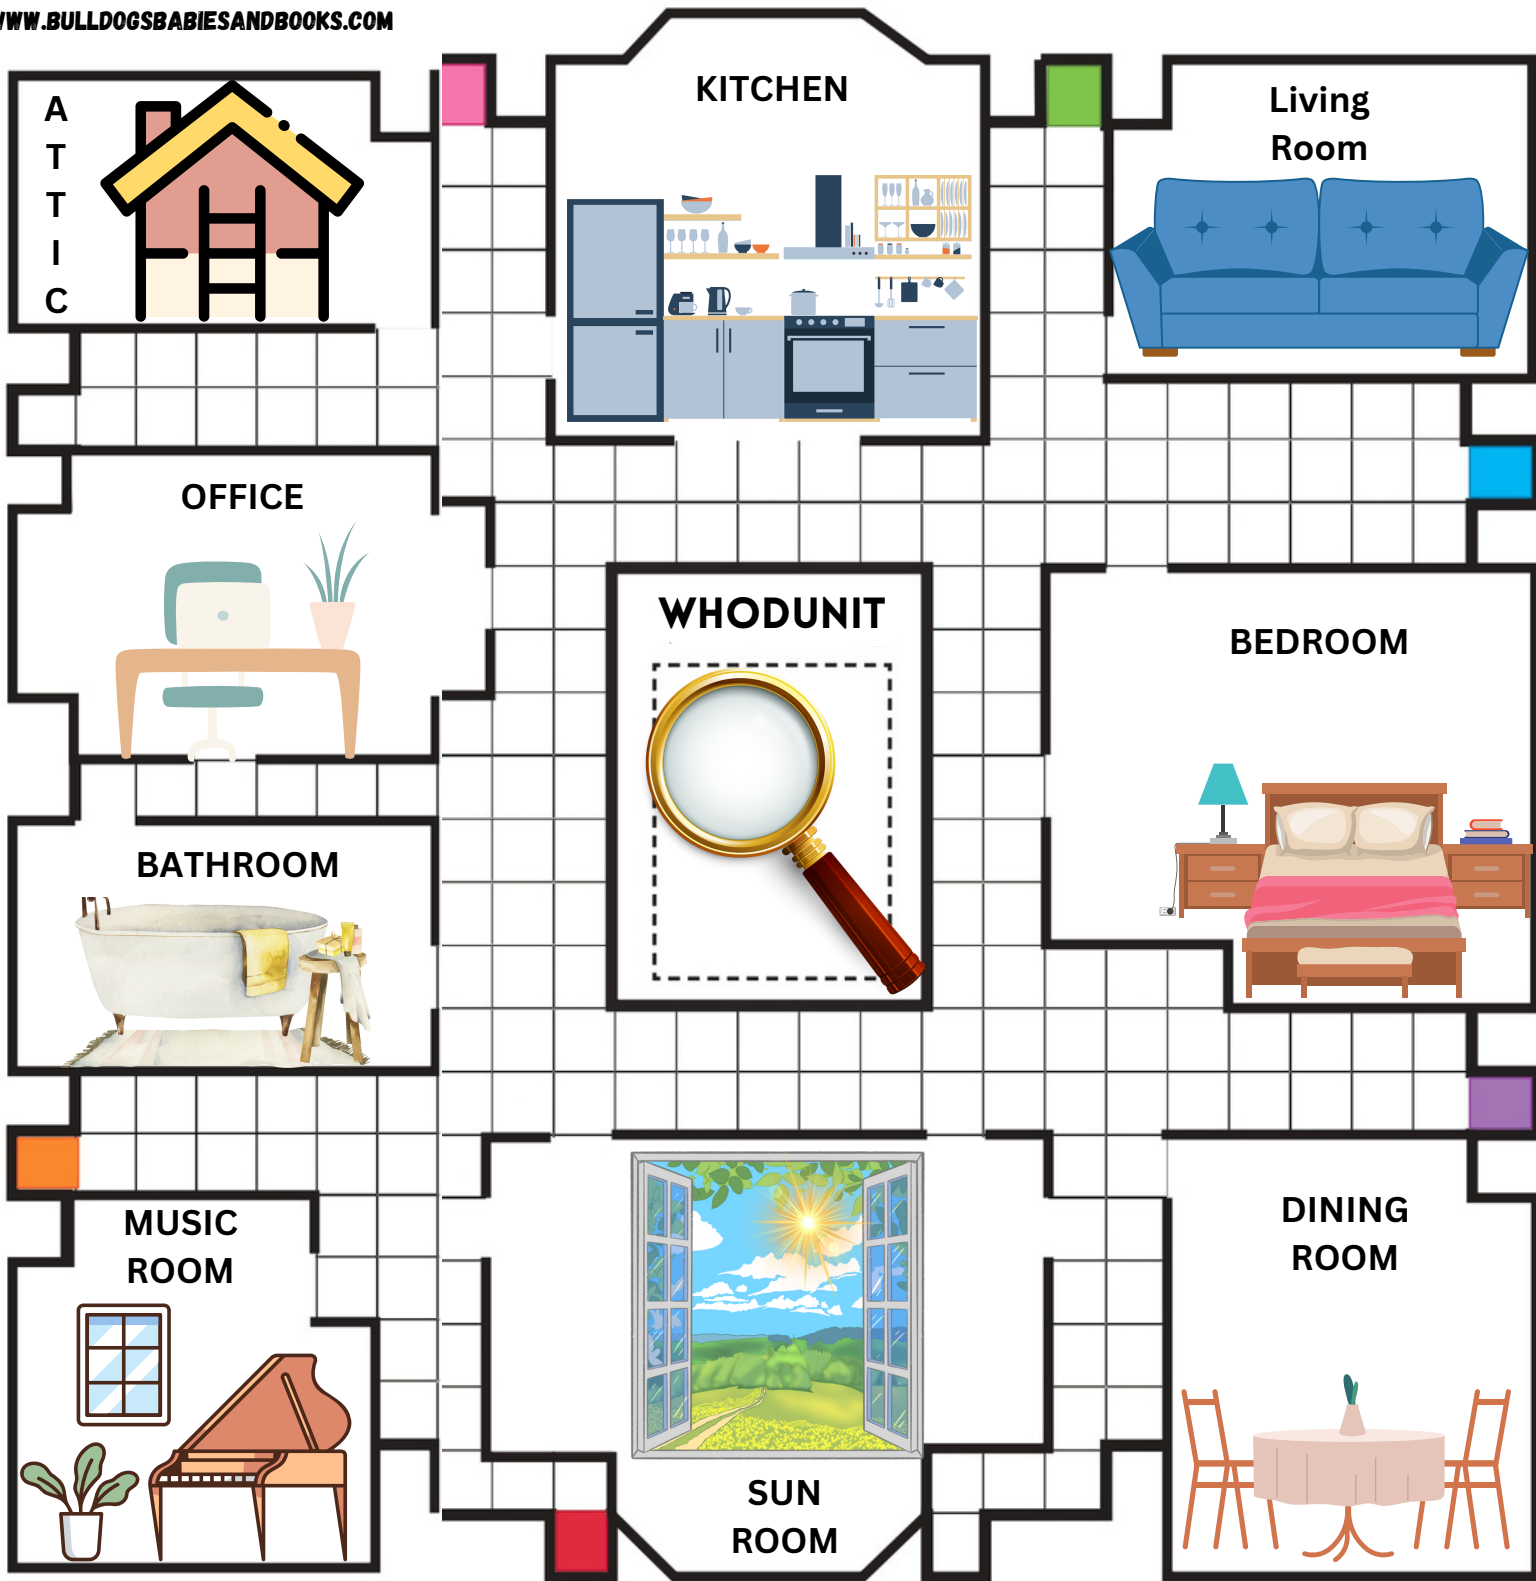

1. Place each circular character token on their place on the board--red token on red square, green token on green square etc. Shuffle the cards separately and without looking, place one Who? card, one What? and one Where? card face down in the middle of the board. Place the rest of the cards face down together and divide them between the group. Give each person a clue sheet and a pencil.
2. Look at your own cards and cross out the Who?, What? and Where? cards from your clue sheet. You now know your cards can't be any of the cards in the middle of the board.
3. Starting with the youngest player, roll both dice. Ideally, you want to be able to enter a room on every turn as once inside, you can make a suggestion.
4. Move your game token the number of spaces you roll. You can move up, down or to the side, but not diagonally. You may not share a space with another player.
5. Once inside a room, you can make suggestion to guess Who?, What? and Where? The where would be the room that you are in.
6. The person on the left of you must reveal if they have any cards you mentioned in their hand. If so, they must show you and no one else one card and you can cross that off of your clue sheet and your turn is over. If they do not have a card, the next person to the left may can reveal one card and so on until a card is revealed.
7. You can only make one accusation per game--be sure you are certain. After you guess you can secretly look at the 3 cards in the middle of the board. If you guessed right---You Won! If not, the game continues but you won't be allowed to play.
